

DYSPEPSIA, DIZZY, WEAK.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Made Him Strong and Well.

Mr. Joseph E. Hood, 129 Front St., Woonsocket, R. I., says:

"I felt weak and dizzy in the morning and my stomach would not digest well, and made me feel so it would burst. I had excruciating pain in the pit of my stomach at times."

Richmond, Va., February 1, 1897.

MR. EPES HAS RESIGNED.

He WILL Leave the State's Employ on the First of March.

Hon. Sydney P. Epes, who has been elected to Congress from the Fourth District, and whose term of office as a national Solon begins with March 4th next, has resigned the office of Register of the Land-Office, which he has filled most acceptably. The resignation, which he forwarded to the Governor to-day, is couched in the following language:

Richmond, Va., February 1, 1897.

His Excellency, Charles T. O'Farrell, Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

"Sir.—Intending to resign my position as Register of the Land-Office on the 1st day of next month (March), I deem it proper to now advise you of such intention, that you may have time to select my successor before that date.

"You will please accept this as my resignation, to take effect on the 1st day of March, 1897.

"Most respectfully,

SYDNEY P. EPES."

There are about twenty applicants for the place for the Governor to select from.

THE SUPERVISORS IN SESSION.

Davis, the Wounded Negro, IS Still Critically Ill.

The Henrico County Board of Supervisors was in session yesterday. Only routine business occupied the attention of the board.

Robert Gaines (colored) was before Squire Vincent, charged with incense. He was recognized in the sum of $300 for his appearance on Saturday.

Paul Davis, the wounded negro, was resting more easily yesterday; but Dr. Coxon said there was no material change in his condition. He is still critically ill.

Cyclone Samuels arrested two small boys yesterday on the charge of stealing chickens. He chased them to the riverbank, down in Varina, and fired three shots at them before he captured them.

ME. JOSEPH E. HOOD.

I used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and every dose gave me relief the moment I took it; the pain is all gone and I feel strong all day—in fact, I feel like a new man. I would not be without Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in the house.

I Encouraged, Mrs. Dr. Greene's Catharine Ellis with the Nervura. Dr. Greene, 25 West 14th St., New York City, the most successful physician in curing nervous and chronic diseases, can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

EYE, EAR, &amp; THROAT INFIRMARY.

Fine Showing Made for This Institution in Its Annual Reports.

The Board of Trustees of the Richmond Eye, Ear and Throat Infirmary held their annual meeting at the secretary's office on Saturday evening.

The reports of the lady managers, surgeons, and officers of the institution were submitted. It was shown that this charity, which has been in existence for sixteen years, is constantly increasing in value to the poor of the community, judging from the demands and operations.

During the year 1896 the number of patients on the in- and outpatient departments were 1,232 different individuals. Reporting 2,344 diseases of the eye, ear, throat, and nose. The number of visits to the dispensary was over 7,000; the number of operations performed was in the neighborhood of 400. This makes a grand total of 21,699 diseases treated, 3,625 operations performed, and 37,665 visits paid to the dispensary. At the time the institution was first opened. Among the operations done were 232 eye operations, nearly all of which were successful. The institution was shown by the report of the treasurer to be in debt, its revenues are small, and not sufficient to meet the demands made upon it; much has to be done by the charitably-disposed, and they are taxed so much that this kind of support is precarious. There is no doubt that such an institution deserves well of the city. The small amount appropriated by the latter is a slight sum, when we consider the hundreds of poor this institution saves from blindness, and from drifting into the almshouse, where they would cost five times as much.

The institution owes much to the lady managers, who are indefatigable in trying to raise the means to meet its expenses. The board consists of Dr. J. B. McCaw, president; Dr. F. T. Willis, vice-president; John H. Montague, treasurer, and Dr. Joseph C. White, secretary; and the following: Colonel Archer Anderson, Col. A. S. Ford, Major Lewis Glinn, Hon. J. Taylor Elyson, Dr. Samuel Bryan, Mr. Andrew Pizzini, Mr. J. P. Branch, Mr. James Cusick, Mr. W. M. Turpin, Mr. H. W. Rountree, and Mr. Branch R. Allen.

The lady managers are Messedames C. O'B. Cowardin, Samuel Cohen, Benjamin Purcell, E. H. Fisher, James B. Winston, George A. Haynes, Helen Gray, Clay Drewry, Ran. Norris, L. Gray, W. L. Lynchman, Reg. Gilham, Miss Alice Dooley, Mrs. George P. Tracy, Mrs. Levin Joyner, and Miss Ella Home.

The medical staff give their services free to every deserving person who applies to them.

ARRESTED FOR SHOP-LIFTING.

Two Women Charged with Taking Goods from Meyers.

Officers C. L. Clark and J. L. Williams of the Police District, yesterday arrested in the store of Julius Meyer's Sons, Mrs. Jennie Vest, the wife of Mr. Charles Vest, a plasterer, of No. 35 north Twenty-fourth street, and Mrs. E. Wilkins, whose husband is a carpenter; and at the station, whether they were taken, the charge of shop-lifting was registered against them.

The women were arrested within an hour of each other, and were reported by one of the employees of the firm, who was on the lookout for the "Barmy" of this nineteenth century to open. Everybody is interested, because everybody has a special interest in one of these five noble charities. These fine hospitals, so high in the benevolent scale and so low in the silver scale, are anxious to associate with the gold element, though copper and silver are urged to circulate freely to the inspiring notes of our time-honored brass band. All this for sweet charity.
